

INTRODUCING STUDY LOAN FACILITY FOR QUANTUM STUDENTS

Quantum University is pleased to announce that it has signed an MOU with NBFC, Bangalore, which shall be providing study loans to our students. It is observed that in some cases students are unable to pay the fee under the annual or semester-wise payment plan. In order to facilitate such students a provision of third party study loan has been facilitated where the students can repay the loan in easy, equal installments.

1. NBFC shall extend a study loan to the students that shall be repayable in 9 equal installments. However, it is the prerogative of the NBFC whether a student qualified for the loan or not.
2. The student, if keen, shall be required to accept the loan through a written undertaking at the time of admission. Once the loan and its installment plan is accepted there shall be no change in the plan for at least one academic year.
3. The student shall be required to pay the first installment to the university at the time of admission confirmation to the university.
4. The first year students shall pay the remaining 8 installments on 5th August, 5th September, 5th October, 5th November, 5th December, 5th January, 5th February, 5th March and 5th April.
5. The 9 installments from the 2nd year onwards would be payable on on 5th June, 5th July, 5th August, 5th September, 5th October, 5th November, 5th December, 5th January and 5th February to the NBFC directly.
6. The monthly installments shall be inclusive of the 10% interest charges that shall be paid to the NBFC.
7. The loan option is being provided only as a facility under an MOU with the third party. Quantum University reserves the right to extend, alter, withdraw the facility at any time.
8. Students are advised to read the terms and conditions of the NBFC carefully and agree to abide by the repayment discipline, as the University holds no liability in this issue.
9. If the student seeks to withdraw from the course after its commencement, in no circumstances shall the amount of the 1st EMI be refundable and shall be taken as a part of the loan processing charges.
